

He's Some Kind Of Wonderful

Parody of Grand Funk Railroad's "Some Kind Of Wonderful" by Paul Hernandez

Verse - I IV I V VI - Chorus - I VI I VI I VI I

- VERSE 1 - (BASS AND DRUMS ONLY)

(I)

I dont need a whole lot of money,
I dont need a big fine car.
I got everything that a man could want,
I got more than I could ask for.

(IV)

I dont have to run around,
I dont have to stay out all night.

(I)

'cause I got me a sweet ... a sweet, lovin' Savior,
And He knows just how to treat me right.

- CHORUS -

(V)

Well my Jesus, He's alright,

(VI)

Well my Jesus, He's clean out-of-sight.

(I)

(IV)

Dont you know that He's ... He's some kind of wonderful.

(I)

(VI)

He's some kind of wonderful ... yes He is, He's,

(I)

He's some kind of wonderful, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeahhh ...

When He holds me in His arms,
You know He sets my soul on fire.
Oooh, when my Savior blesses me,
My heart is filled with His desires.
When He wraps His lovin arms around me,
He tells me, "you are a child of mine"
Oh, how my Savior blesses me,
I feel His Spirit workin' in my life.
